"A New Birth of Freedom" with Abe Lincoln:

On Thursday, February 28 6:00-7:30PM hear Kevin J. Wood portray President Abraham Lincoln as he gives a first-hand account of the history of the USA from our establishment in 1776 through the end of the Civil War in 1865. This was a remarkable time of new ideas, tremendous change, and exciting growth in our young country. Yet at the same time, this period was also marked by great conflict and an uncertainty about our future as a people and a nation. All of this change, growth, conflict, and uncertainty would come to a head during the twelve turbulent years from 1854-1865 which nearly destroyed our young nation but instead eventually resulted in a "new birth of freedom". Adults and children alike will enjoy hearing this historical presentation.

We will be using glass baby food jars and other supplies to create silhouette jars lit with tea lights. This craft is for ages 10+. If anyone has a large glass jar you would prefer to use (such as a pickle jar or mason jar), you are welcome to bring it. We will have some larger silhouettes available to choose from.

1000 Books Before Kindergarten:

The program is simple:

1. Read 1000 book with your child.
2. Earn prizes along the way.
3. Have fun, while encouraging your child to become a lifelong reader.

Reading 3 books every night to your child for just 1 year would be 1095 books!

Children will receive small prizes and encouragement with each milestone of 100 books read. You will be able to track your progress on reading sheets.

Stop in with your pre-kindergarten aged children and learn more about this great program!
