Learn how to grow your own garden and how you can reap the benefits from one of the best things you can do for yourself. Come with questions and our expert will help you learn how to grow and enjoy a garden. Presented by Ron Lenth, ISU Extension & Outreach, Bremer County.

Garden Stepping Stones:

9:30AM on Saturday, April 6.
Create your own Garden Stepping Stone at the Library. We will supply cement and glass gems. You may bring other items to add to your stone. Foot and hand prints are great additions to a stone and provide a memory to last through the years. Pre-registration is required as space is limited to 20 people, with a $5 registration fee to help offset the cost of supplies.

Tuesday, April 16 at 1:30-3:30PM & 5:30-7:30PM.
Join us for a free self-defense class! This class is appropriate for women ages 13 and above. It's a great opportunity to learn how to keep yourself and your loved ones safe, and we're going to have a lot of fun! Register to attend one of the two classes being offered.

Welcome to Adulting 101:

A lot of life skills go untaught today, so we are bringing in some experts on the topics you may have questions about to give you the ability to feel more confident navigating adulthood. Whether you are new to being an adult or new to the single life, we are here to help you learn more about the crazy world we live in.

Future program topics will include: gardening, cooking, sewing, and more.

The information in these sessions is geared toward ages 18-35, but all ages are welcome to attend.

A Fill a Bag Book Sale will be held from—
