

Learning From Loss— Communication During Grief

Tuesday, July 27 | 6:00-7:00PM

Soon to be college freshman Breanna Lorenzen will present her Learning From Loss: Communication During Grief program. Breanna lost her mother in 2019, and realized others didn't know how to relate to her, surrounding her loss, and she was struggling to communicate to those who are grieving as well as self-care for those experiencing a loss. Breanna's goal is to spread the word to others, helping people better support each other as well as take better care of themselves.
