Fiend Incarnate: Villisca Axe Murders of 1912— Author Visit: Edgar V. Epperly Tuesday, February 8 at 5:30PM.

Author Dr. Edgar V. Epperly has been researching the 1912 Villisca axe murders for over 60 years. He has written dozens of articles and blog entries, and appeared on CourtTV and other radio and television programs. He is a popular guest speaker at colleges, universities, historical societies, museums, libraries, and book stores. He resides in Decorah, Iowa. Epperly's research journey was the subject of the award-winning short documentary film AXMAN.

Yarn Wall Art & DIY Natural Blush- Adult Crafts:

Thursday, February 17 from 6-7PM.
Yarn wall art crafts are in this year!

So why not try your hand at small scale weaving? Picking out colors and different textures and putting them together can be very satisfying.

During this craft night, we will learn different styles and ways to weave as we flex our finger and creative muscles. These make one of a kind art pieces that can add pop to any wall. A quiet craft that can also quiet the mind.

*Participants can bring their own yarn, but a variety of yarn will be provided.

Along with the yarn art we will be making a natural powdered blush.

This is a simple way to dip our toes into making make-up. To learn about ingredients and tailoring them to one's self.

No School- Board Game Day:

Friday, February 11 from 1-3PM
the Library will be hosting a fun afternoon of board games and snacks to help keep kids entertained on a chilly No School Day!

Kids' Escape Room:

Friday, February 18 at 1:00PM

Gather a group of 4-6 classmates (ages 8-12) to take on our Escape
